Day 3 - Cape Town

Morning Golf at Pearl Valley Golf Course

A world-class, 18-hole championship golf course conceived by Nicklaus Design with extensive input from Jack Nicklaus himself. Perfectly epitomising his vision, philosophy and passion for the game, it boasts pristinely manicured all-season fairways, exceptional bunkering and the ingenious use of water features, designed to challenge even the most experienced of players.

Afternoon at leisure

Day 4 - Cape Town

Full Day Franschoek Wine Tram

The Franschoek Wine Tram hop-on hop-off tour is one of the best ways to discover the true essence of the Franschoek Valley. Passengers aboard the hop-on hop-off tour will experience a unique and leisurely way to see the Franschoek Valley as they journey through rolling vineyards in a double-decker tram and open-air tram-bus stopping in at some of South Africa's oldest and most distinguished wine estates. A combination of tram and tram-bus transports passengers around a loop of stops allowing them to hop-off at each stop and experience the activities on offer, be it wine tasting, a cellar tour, lunch or simply a stroll through the vineyards and when they are ready, hop-on to continue the tour.

Day 5 - Cape Town

Morning Golf at Arabella Golf Course

Surrounded by the magnificent Kogelberg mountain range and Bot River Lagoon, and edged by wild fynbos, the picturesque Arabella Country Estate is the ideal place to pursue a passion for golf and enjoy an idyllic golf holiday. The fabled 18-hole, Par 72 Championship course has consistently been ranked in the top 10 courses in South Africa. The 8th hole has been described as one of the most beautiful par 5's in South Africa and the 18th hole was rated one of the finest finishing holes in the country.

Day 6 - Cape Town

Morning Table Mountain & Robben Island visit (Optional)

Table Mountain is the most renowned historical sightseeing landmark in all of South Africa. It is likewise the most photographed attraction in Cape Town for its famous flat-top and has seen millions of visitors

Table Mountain since 1994 has become the world's icon of South African pride and democracy for locals and travellers.

Robben Island has been used as a prison and a place where people were isolated, banished and exiled to for nearly 400 years. It was also used as a post office, a grazing ground, a mental hospital and an outpost. Learn about the Island's role as a former prison, and hear stories about Nelson Mandela and how he spent 18 years of his 27-year sentence there.

Afternoon at leisure at the V&A Waterfront

Day 9 - Kruger National Park

Morning: Golf at Skukuza Golf Club

Skukuza Golf Club is a magnificent 9-hole (18-tee) course situated in the world-renowned Kruger National Park on the outskirts of Skukuza rest camp. The rich wildlife sanctuary surrounding the golf course is home to the Big Five, a huge variety of birds and countless animals, which all conspire to provide their visitors with a harmonious close-to-nature golfing experience. Their course is a Par 72, and is 5950m (6450 yards) for men and 5059m (5480 yards) for women. Since the course is not fenced-in, uninvited spectators are a common sight, hippo, impala, warthog and baboons to mention but a few. The course offers the pleasure of challenge and adventure.

Day 12 - Durban

Morning Golf at Zimbali Golf Course

Tucked deep in the natural coastal forest, Zimbali Country Club is built around the remains of a ruined farmhouse, enveloped by the roots of a beautiful ageing wild fig tree. The luxury contemporary clubhouse is the gathering place for golfers and families of Zimbali Estate to unwind and reconnect at the many social events held here. Being an eco-conscious golf course and estate, Zimbali's tee boxes are often situated in slightly tricky positions to avoid environmental disturbances. The first eleven holes take you over rolling hills, which present ideal vantage points from which to enjoy the magnificent views. Thereafter, holes twelve to eighteen explore the Zimbali indigenous forest.

Day 14 - Durban

Morning visit to Zulu Land (Optional)

Lying beneath the baking heat of a subtropical sun, Zululand is how many regard KwaZulu Natal in their minds eye - peaceful, green hills, waving grasslands, abundant forests, unhurried lifestyle, and a soil imbued with the strength of the Zulu nation who fought for this land. It is thus an area rich in symbolism and tradition, and the age-old Zulu culture remains today, as visitors are invited into the heart of Zulu villages like Shakaland and Dumazulu where one can visit a sangoma, watch a rural wedding ceremony and experience Zulu hospitality. Learn also about life in King Dingane's capital uMgungundlovu.

Afternoon at leisure

Day 15 - Durban

Morning Golf at Prince's Grant Golf Course

Indulge in the ultimate golfing retreat at Prince's Grant, nestled on the captivating Sugar Coast of KwaZulu-Natal. This prestigious golf estate offers an unrivaled experience for golf enthusiasts of all levels. With lush fairways, undulating greens, and breath-taking coastal vistas, every swing is a moment to savor. Whether you're a seasoned player or just starting your golfing journey, our course promises an unforgettable experience that combines impeccable service, pristine natural beauty, and a passion for the game.
